Dear Mr. Secretary:

My constituents are concerned about the fate of Swedish Diplomat Raoul Wallenberg. Mr. Wallenberg risked his life many times during World War II in keeping nearly 100,000 Hungarian Jews from death in Nazi concentration camps. In 1945, Mr. Wallenberg was imprisoned by the soviets in 1945.

Although the Soviets contend that Mr. Wallenberg died in 1947, there is now reason to believe that he is still alive and in prison, I have enclosed a Resolution on the subject from the Louisiana Republican Party. I urge you to research Mr. Wallenberg's situation. I am sure you will agree that if Mr. Wallenberg is still alive, he has suffered in the Soviet prison far too long.

Thank you for your help. I am sure any answers you could provide will

Sincerely

ROBERT L. LIVINGSTON
Member of Congress
